

The Severn Way Walk

Organised by the Rotary Club of Stourport on Severn

The Source – Plynlimon

The Severn is the longest river in the British Isles and passes through some beautiful countryside and lovely villages, town and cities.

The walk is approximately 230 miles from Llandiloes in Wales to the centre of Bristol.

Objective - The objective is to walk the Severn Way in stages as a relay over a 16 day period to raise money for charity. You can walk one or more stages, some of the stages will be broken down into sub stages so you can walk as little or as far as you would like.

The Bridge over the Severn at Stourport

Dates - May 7th to May 22nd The stages are listed overleaf.

Charities - The walk gives you an opportunity to raise money for the charity of your choice or for the Rotary Club of Stourport on Severn's charities which will be:-

- Water Aid - a charity which supplies practical solutions to provide safe water, effective sanitation and hygiene education to the world's poorest people www.wateraid.org. a charity which Rotary supports
- Shelterbox - a Rotary disaster relief charity that delivers emergency shelter, warmth and dignity to people affected by disaster worldwide www.shelterbox.org
- Headway - a local charity who help people who had have brain injuries and strokes www.headwaynw.org.uk
